

G. O. P. VICTORY MAKES TOY ELEPHANTS POPULAR XMAS GIFTS

Some of the toy elephants on sale in stores, and Raymond Beers and the mammoth model engine he helps build.

Toy elephants, ranging in size from diminutive watch charms to huge wooden and cloth-covered affairs that a youngster can ride about the house, are prominent among Xmas gift suggestions in the stores. Always popular, the Republican landslide makes them all the more so. What boy wouldn't like to receive for Christmas a "real locomotive," the size of the one above. It is a reproduction of a modern Boston and Maine Pacific type passenger locomotive. Norman E. Beers, a machinist of that road at Ayer, Mass., has spent his leisure time for two years building it. His son Norman has helped him and is allowed to display it to his boy friends.

Rob Deputy Sheriff of Even His Revolver

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE) ST. LOUIS, MO., Dec. 9.—Deputy Sheriff Schultz is totting a new revolver now. A bad St. Louis highwayman took his old one away from him. It was late—very late—when the deputy's lodge adjourned, and raining. So the deputy hoisted an umbrella and started homeward with a package under his arm. Suddenly an arm with a revolver at its end swung up under his umbrella. Schultz was at a disadvantage, with the umbrella in one hand and the package in the other. Another revolver pressed against his back. Then the robbers took his pistol, watch and $25 cash and bade him goodnight.

Sweet, a Portland business man. On investigation it was learned that the securities were the property of Aram Whitney, a wealthy resident of this city and that he had left them in the booth after examining the contents of his safe deposit vault. Simple Explanation.
Pierre was trying to solve an example in arithmetic, but it came out 2 cents less than it should, over and over again. So I offered to help him; when all of a sudden he said: "I bet I know now what the matter is, I ought to add 2 cents for war tax."—Exchange.

Substitute for Gold.
What is said to be a serviceable substitute for gold is obtained by combining 94 parts of copper with six parts of antimony and adding a little magnesium carbonate to increase the weight. It is said that this alloy can be drawn, wrought and soldered very much like gold and that it also receives and retains a golden polish.

What "Cenotaph" Means.
Several readers have written asking the meaning of "cenotaph." The word is derived from the Greek words "kenos," meaning "empty," and "taphos," meaning "tomb." In other words, a cenotaph is a sepulchral monument erected in honor of a person whose body lies elsewhere. —London Tit-Bits.
